

MISSION MATTERS: October 2023

Last Sunday we had a luau to celebrate Pastor Kris as she moves on to new adventures and we at Island Presbyterian begin a new chapter with a new pastor. Yes, Pastor, I know that was a run-on sentence. How I will miss her quick wit, sense of humor and kind, compassionate heart. This is a tribute to Pastor Kris and an acknowledgement of her contributions to the Island Presbyterian Church mission team.

I have served on many mission teams in many places. I have had wonderful, encouraging pastors with great ideas and plans for mission. I have not, however, had a pastor who actually participated in the work of the team, until Pastor Kris.

Pastor Kris has been actively involved in all our ministries. She served communion at street ministry, purchased school supplies for our border ministry, C.U.P.S., bought Christmas gifts for the children of Presbyterian Children's Home and I could probably fill the entire newsletter with examples of her support. Suffice it to say that we have ten ministries, and she has supported every one financially, materially, in person or all of the above. She even adopted a dog from our animal rescue ministry.

It has been a joy and an honor to work with you, Pastor Kris. On behalf of the mission team, thank you for everything. You truly made a difference.
